Thanks to everybody who supported the event and enjoyed the day. Another superb record breaking ride by Charles Taylor. Congratulations to him, all the prize winners, the many PBs set and to those who had a go at their first 50.

Thanks to Tony Millington for time keeping. Phil Fern once again did a cracking job with the start sheet, result sheet, the technology necessary and working hard to meet all the last-minute rider requests. My influence with the weather failed for the last few riders – sorry!

As with all Open events there is an army of helpers who spend many hours to ensure the event can take place. I would like to thank: Fred and Christine Potter, Mike Andrew, Ray McCarthy, Pete Levene, Terry Crosswell, John and Heather West, Roger and Jean Beswick, John Norton, Rob Sharpe, Pam Fern, Neil Norris, Dave Cane, Maurice Green, Jane and Stuart Kirkham and lastly Mike Cotgreave and Adrian Jones both in the Westmead, who stepped in at short notice to help.

They feed, direct, push and work hard for your benefit. If there are any of you that haven't helped with an event then please volunteer. Many events in Manchester need you and would love to hear from you.

Finally, unfortunately there are some riders who broke safety rules (Tri-bars on Chelford and behaviour at junctions). You will be hearing from us. Risking your life is not worth it.

All the best for the rest of the season - may it be fast and safe.

Rob Bailey
