Sponsored Clubs: Vision Racing - Delamere Dairy/GRM Property Consultants/Swinerton Cycles:

Thanks to everybody who supported both this and the postponed event. For those of you who rode both the M&DTTA event and this one you deserve a medal!

Congratulations to Mark Turnbull; an excellent ride. To all those who did PBs or just enjoyed themselves, well done.

Thanks to Adrian Humpage for timing and also pushing off for a spell. His multi-tasking was much appreciated.

Phil Fern once again handled all the start and result sheet preparation as well as sorting out the carry over admin from the postponed event. Without his skill and hard work there would have been no event.

I know many of you appreciated the efforts of the following who pushed, fed, got you to sign on / off and directed you round the course. Several did more than one job.

Maurice Green, David Cane, Fred Potter, Stuart and Jane Kirkham, Phil and Pam Fern, Terry Crosswell, Rob Sharpe, James Verity, John, Heather and Emma West, Mike Bailey, Alex Royle, Curtis Fisher, Bob and Enid Palmer, Ray McCarthy, Alma Norris, Lish Atkinson and last but not least Mike Cotgreave of Westmead Team 88. To every one of you my personal thanks.

Everybody observed the Chelford tri-bar rule – thanks. Sorry for those who followed the Manchester 100 sign back down Seven Sister's Lane.

This sadly will be the last Chesh 50. Our Club no longer has sufficient members to cover all the jobs to the right standard. The first Chesh 50 in 1931 was won with 2.12.49. Times have changed!!

May the rest of the season be both fast and safe for all of you.

Rob Bailey
